

Dr. Okon Joseph Umoh, Principal Programme Manager, Research and Macroeconomic Management Department

Dr. Okon Joseph Umoh is the Principal Programme Manager, Research and Macroeconomic Management Department. He is a Nigerian, born on April 11th, 1958. He obtained a B. Sc. Economics in 1985 from University of Calabar, he also holds a M. Sc Economics (Econometrics) and Ph. D. Economics (Econometrics) from University of Ibadan, Nigeria and University of Uyo, Nigeria respectively.

Until his appointment as the Senior Programme Manager, WAIFEM on March 3, 2014, he was an Associate Professor, Department of Economics, University of Uyo, Nigeria between 1987 and 2014. He has also been a Managing Consultant, Foundation for Economic Research and Training (FERT), Uyo, Nigeria, since 1995, a lead consultant, FRIDA Consult, Uyo, Nigeria and a consultant to the Government of Akwa Ibom State, Nigeria on Millenium Development Goals (MDGs) since 2005, among others.

Dr. Umoh is a member of Nigerian Economic Society (NES) and International Association of Environmental Impact Assessors.

He has published so many thesis, journal articles and books. He is married with three children.

Email: oumoh@waifem-cbp.org